O R D E R

1. Brinder Singh and Jagjit Singh (here-in-after called as the complainants) have filed this complaint against M/s Emaar MGF

Land Limited, (here-in-after called as the respondent) alongwith documents alleging violation of Section 18 of the Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act 2016 (herein-after called as the Act) seeking refund alongwith interest and compensation as per the provisions of the Act on account of delay in handing over possession of the flat bearing No.TVM-K1-FPH-PH02 in Tower No.K, The Views at Mohali, Hills, Sector 105, SAS Nagar. It is the case of the complainants that the total price of the apartment was Rs.99,15,199/- and the complainants have paid an amount of Rs.97,39,557/-, however, the possession of the flat has not been handed over to them, as per terms and conditions of the agreement to sell dated 13.06.2011. It is pleaded by the complainants that the project in question has been registered with this Authority.

2. Upon notice of this complaint, respondent appeared and filed detailed reply opposing the claim of the complainants on various grounds.

3. Considering the pleadings and documents annexed therewith, earlier vide order dated 05.04.2018, the instant complaint was dismissed as the project in question qua tower K had not been registered with this Authority, which the respondent has got registered and the case was remanded back from appeal by the Hon'ble Appellate Tribunal. After remand the case was fixed for consideration on the point of violation/contravention of the Act, if any.

4. While exercising powers as Adjudicating Officer, I have decided several cases including Suman Mann Vs. JLPL bearing complaint No.AO.09 of 2017 decided on 14.05.2018 and Nikhil Kwatra Vs. JLPL bearing complaint No.AO.20/2017 decided on 14.05.2018 and other cases, wherein, several points have been elaborated including one regarding role of the Authority and the Adjudicating Officer. Now, the Punjab State Real Estate Authority, in its 7th meeting held on 09.10.2018 at Agenda Item No. 7.4 has taken a decision in regard to the role of the Adjudicating Officer in the context of complaint in form-N and subsequently a circular bearing No.RERA/Pb./ENF/14 dated 29.10.2018 has also been issued in that regard. The said item No.7.4 is reproduced as under for ready reference:-

S. S. S. S. S.
31/10/2018

7.4 Role of the Adjudicating Officer in the context of complaint in form 'M' and 'N'.

The matter was discussed at length and it was decided that the role of the Adjudicating Officer was limited only to the purpose of adjudication of compensation under Sections 12, 14, 18 and 19 of the Act. Refund of money deposited by a complainant, alongwith interest thereon, would not be treated as compensation; and hence, complaints in which the above relief was claimed were to be filed in form-M and be dealt with by the Authority or its Benches. The complainant would also be free to file a separate claim in Form-N before the Adjudicating Officer for compensation in Form-M for refund of amount deposited and interest thereon.

It was also seen that in a number of cases, the relief of compensation for harassment etc. was claimed in the complaint, but, was not pressed at the time of arguments. Therefore, if the relief of compensation was claimed in addition to the refund of the amount and interest thereon, the complaint would still be filed in Form-M; and if the point of compensation was actually pressed, the complainant would be advised to file a separate complaint before the Adjudicating Officer for this purpose.

J. S. Khurda The Legal Branch should scrutinize the complaints received in accordance with the above decision."

5. In view of the above decision of the Authority, the Adjudicating Officer now cannot deal with the cases of the refund and interest and for that purpose the complaint has to be filed in Form-M before the Authority. For compensation only, the party may file complaint in Form-N. Thus, in view of these circumstances, the Adjudicating Officer lacks the jurisdiction to grant relief of refund or interest thereon. Therefore, in the larger interest of justice, the complaint is ordered to be returned to the complainants, who are at liberty to file a fresh complaint before the Authority as per the decision of learned Authority. Copy of this order be supplied to both the parties under Rules.
