Punam Thakur Vs. Pradeep Sharma

Dated: 12.06.2019

Present: None for complainant
Shri Rohit Saroha representative for the respondent

The representative for the respondent has filed power of attorney on behalf of the respondent along with a copy of the application and printout of email purported to have been written/sent by the complainant. Case called several times since morning, but, none has appeared on behalf of the complainant despite of service through e-mail ID. Let the presence of complainant be awaited and put up the file afternoon.

Present: None for complainant
Shri Rohit Saroha representative for the respondent

Case called again several times afternoon, but, again the complainant has not come present. The representative for the respondent has stated that the matter has been settled between the parties and the complainant has also sent an application to them in that regard and showing her intention to withdraw the complaint.

The complainant has not come present despite of service though it is already 2:33PM. In these circumstances, without going into the genuineness of the contents of the application and e-mail, it appears that the matter having already settled, the complainant is not interested to pursue this case. The complaint is accordingly dismissed in default. The file be consigned to record room after due compilation.
